

María Pía Santibáñez

PhD(c) in Economics, University of Chile • marsantiba@fen.uchile.cl • mpsantibanez.github.io

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Applied Microeconomics, Labor Economics, Intergenerational Transmission, Economic History

EDUCATION

University of Chile

2023 – Present

Ph.D. in Economics

Dissertation: Essays on the Economics of Crime

Boston University

2014 – 2016

M.A. in Economic Policy

Research paper: “Household Characteristics, Cash Transfers, and Child Labor in Bolivia.” Using Bolivia’s 2013 National Household Survey, estimated the effect of the Juancito Pinto conditional cash transfer and household characteristics on child labor outcomes.

Universidad Técnica Federico Santa María

2008 – 2012

B.Sc. in Commercial Engineering (equivalent to B.Sc. in Business and Economics)

Thesis: “Factors Influencing Demand for Agricultural Weather Insurance: Evidence from the Chilean Wheat Market (2004–2007).”

WORKING PAPERS

“The Intergenerational Transmission of Crime: The Role of Parental Criminal Behavior”

TEACHING

University of Chile

2026

Teaching Assistant

Topics in Economic History (Graduate seminar, Master’s in Economic Analysis). Instructor: Prof. Ariadna Jou.

Universidad Técnica Federico Santa María

2019 – Present

Lecturer, Department of Commercial Engineering

Introduction to Economics; Macroeconomics; Microeconomics I & II; Industrial Organization. Campuses of Santiago and Valparaíso.

Thesis committee co-advisor for undergraduate students.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

University of Chile

2025 – Present

Research Assistant, Prof. Ariadna Jou and Prof. Francisco Pino

Data work for projects in Economic History and Political Economy.

University of Chile

2024 – 2025

Research Assistant, Prof. Ariadna Jou

Project: “Do Relief Programs Compensate Affected Populations?” Analyzed mechanisms underlying the New Deal’s effects on longevity and well-being through cause-specific mortality analysis.

Boston University

2015

Research Assistant, Prof. Francesco Decarolis

Statistical cleaning and analysis of the European public procurement database (EU Official Journal Supplement, health sector).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Coopeuch (Chile’s largest credit union), Santiago

2016 – 2019

Economic Research Analyst

Forecasted key macroeconomic indicators. Built predictive models for consumer credit demand and prepayment risk; led periodic research briefings for staff and members.

BNP Paribas Cardif, Santiago

2013 – 2014

Actuarial Studies Analyst

Improved valuation models for retail insurance products; produced reports for headquarters.

FELLOWSHIPS & AWARDS

ANID National Doctoral Fellowship

2023 – Present

Agencia Nacional de Investigación y Desarrollo, Chile.

Best Professor 2022

2022

Recognized by student vote, Commercial Engineering, UTFSM Campus Vitacura.

SERVICE & OUTREACH

Mentor, Inspira STEAM

2020 – 2022

Mentored primary school students to foster interest in science and technology.

Mathematics Tutor, Crea+ and Un Techo Para Chile

2010 – 2013

Individualized tutoring in mathematics and reading for primary school students.

SKILLS

Software: Stata, R, Python, Matlab, L^AT_EX, Bloomberg, MS Office, Google Workspace

Languages: Spanish (native), English (fluent)